15 Nevada.

17 10. At all the times hereinafter mentioned, the defendant WALMART was in control of the 18 management of said retail store and was held out to the public by the Defendant as the "proprietor" thereof.

19 11. Defendant WALMART employed attendants, to attend the common areas of the above
20 mentioned premises, and to assist persons lawfully using said premises and maintaining the facilities.

21 12. On or about May 29, 2018, SANCHEZ was walking in WALMART as a customer when she 22 slipped in liquid on the floor.

23 13. The liquid appeared to be standing water.

24 14. WALMART employees were located throughout the store, but none of the employees cleaned
25 up the liquid, allowing it to remain wet and a slipping hazard.

26 15. Alternately, WALMART employees put the liquid on the floor themselves, causing the hazard.

27 16. There were no warning signs or cones indicating that a liquid was spilled on the floor.

28 17. Defendants knew or should have known that there was liquid on the floor and that it was a

11
12 FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF

13 (Negligence)

14 24. Plaintiff hereby repeats and alleges all previous paragraphs, as though fully set forth herein.

15 25. Plaintiff fell as aforesaid, by reason of the negligence of the Defendants in failing to clean and 16 keep dry the grounds of said premises of said corporate defendant; in maintaining said floor in a
17 condition dangerous to the life and limb of persons lawfully using same, in that they failed to clean the 18 floor of liquid; in maintaining said floor in a slippery condition, dangerous to the life and limb of 19 persons using the same; in failing to use proper cleaning and maintenance standards, and to exercise
20 proper care, or to remedy the slippery condition of the floor to the aforesaid premises with protective 21 strips, coatings or warning signs and cones.

22 26. Defendants failed to maintain the floor of their facility in reasonably safe condition for use.

23 27. Defendants knew or should have known about the condition of the floor.

24 28. Defendants knew that broken merchandise, employees or other invitees of WALMART may 25 cause debris or fluids to fall onto the floor and cause a danger to Plaintiff that was foreseeable.

26 29. Alternately, WALMART knew that employees may leave the floor in a wet or unsafe condition
27 due to liquids.

28 30. Defendants and its attendants failed to take reasonable precautions against the foreseeable dangerous condition caused by employees or other invitees.

31. Defendants failed to exercise due care for the safety of the Plaintiff or other patrons or employees of the WALMART on the premises.

32. Upon information and belief, Defendants knew of prior incidents of similar dangerous conditions of liquids or slick substances on the floors being caused on the premises by other persons, or by broken merchandise, and the Defendant had notice or knowledge of those incidents.

33. The doctrine of res ipsa loquitur is applicable to Plaintiff's action against Defendants herein, in that at the time that Plaintiff fell, the floor was under the exclusive control of Defendants. If Defendants had cleaned or maintained the floor with reasonable care, instead of in a negligent manner, then, in the ordinary course, Plaintiff would not have fallen as alleged herein.

34. As a result of Defendants' negligence, Plaintiff has suffered physical and emotional pain.

35. As such, Defendant is responsible for damages in excess of $15,000.00.

36. Because of Defendants' acts or omissions, Plaintiff has been required to incur further attorneys' fees and costs in bringing this action and request that the Court grant said fees and costs.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff is entitled to judgment in his favor and against Defendants, jointly and severally, as follows:

1. For judgment in an amount in excess of $15,000.00;
2. For all costs and all attorneys' fees incurred and accrued in these proceedings;
3. For interest thereon at the legal rate until paid in full; and
4. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.
